

Questions for the admissions interview

Don't be afraid to offer information about your strengths that will help the interviewer get to know you better!

You may want to ask admissions office personnel:

- What are the smallest and largest class sizes?
- What types of transportation are available on or near campus? Are first-year students permitted to have cars on campus?
- What employment and work-study options are available?
- What measures or systems are in place across campus to maintain and ensure safety?
- What day trips or weekend excursions do the students take? Are weekend activities offered on campus?
- What makes this college unique?
- What clubs and student groups exist?
- How are student housing decisions made? Are students required to live on campus? Is housing guaranteed?
- How competitive is the school academically? In sports?
- How many classes are taught by teaching assistants? By professors?
- How does the academic advising process work?
- Does the school have internship programs? How do they work?
- What percentage of graduates find employment within six months of graduation?
- Are tutoring and other support services available?
- How close are the local movie theaters, stores, restaurants, and other services?

The admissions office staff may want to ask you:

- Why are you interested in this particular college?
- What strengths could you add to our campus community?
- What are your career and personal goals?
- If you could read the evaluation your counselor has written about you, what might it say?
- How accurately do your grades and test scores reflect your true abilities?
- What do you do in your spare time?
- What have you read lately?
