Board Manual

Also, he and Tom will take notes from the Committee's conversations in this meeting and will update the draft manual revisions accordingly. #### Board Member Recruitment: (3.4):

The Committee reviewed the edits to this section. They had a discussion on the frequency of the Committee's assessment to identify any gaps between the Board's composition and the Board's needs. The Committee also had a discussion to whether maintaining a recruitment list should be an expectation of this Committee or should be an expectation of the Executive Committee; the consensus favored the Executive Committee.

9:14 a.m. Mary-Katherine Stone entered the meeting

Board Self-Evaluation (3.5):

Upon review of the edits to this section, the Committee discussed the importance of self-evaluations and the frequency the committee should initiate them. The Committee also noted that after a Board self-evaluation the Committee should evaluate the results and determine where the Board has gaps in experience and knowledge to inform member recruitment.

CEO Evaluation (3.6):

While the Committee reviewed the edits, they also discussed the current CEO Evaluation process and whether this section should contain more details of that process. Tom and Dave will add more detail to the section including information that needs to be sent annually to the Governor.

Committee Charges (4.1):

The Committee reviewed the edits to the section. They then discussed the importance of having the Board Chair be a member of the Committee, and the importance that a Board member should not hold both the Governance Committee Chair and Board Chair positions simultaneously.

Thomas A. Little, Assistant Secretary
