Flexible Pathways are Supported by Legislation

Act 77: The Flexible Pathways Initiative

graph TD; A[Act 77: The Flexible Pathways Initiative] --> B[Personalized Learning (7-12)]; A --> C[Flexible Pathways]; B <--> C;

The diagram illustrates the legislative support for flexible pathways. At the top, a green box labeled 'Act 77: The Flexible Pathways Initiative' has two arrows pointing down to two separate boxes. The left box, 'Personalized Learning (7-12)', is blue and lists four bullet points. The right box, 'Flexible Pathways', is orange and lists three bullet points. A double-headed arrow connects the two bottom boxes, indicating a reciprocal relationship between personalized learning and flexible pathways.

Personalized Learning (7-12)

- Personalized learning planning process
- Discover student interests, abilities, etc.
- Personalized Learning Plan
- Career development and post-secondary planning

Flexible Pathways

- Increase engagement and encourage postsecondary continuation
- Can relate to career and academic interests
- Multiple types of flexible pathways
