PAYING FOR COLLEGE

What about a federal PLUS loan?

Some colleges will include a PLUS loan in the financial aid offer; others may not. PLUS loans are federal education loans for parents of dependent students. Each PLUS loan is in one parent’s name. The parent, not the student, is obligated for repayment.

If a PLUS loan does appear in your offer, you can choose to take less or you can decline it completely.

If it isn’t included, you still may be eligible at any time during the year.

Either way, before taking a PLUS loan, compare terms with other available options. Visit VSAC’s education loans for students and parents, which may have more favorable terms. Visit www vsac org compare for help.

Your college may require that you accept or decline your offers. Read all instructions carefully. You may be able to accept some parts of the package by the college deadline and decide later about loan options.

Don’t say “YES” to any college until you compare the complete offer with the cost of attendance. Include estimated out-of-pocket expenses (travel, books, personal items), as well as costs for tuition, fees, room, and meal plans.

Your total offer may consist of grant, loan, and work-study funds. Read the fine print on your notification and on any additional forms included with the notification! Identify the funds that are gifts and the funds you’ll be expected to repay.

To help you complete the financial aid application process, VSAC’s office will require the following information before an aid offer can be finalized:

- Parent(s)’ 2018 W2 statements
- Parent(s)’ 2018 federal tax transcript
- XYZ College verification worksheet (see next page)

We are pleased to offer you the financial aid indicated below. Please accept or decline each offer by circling the A or D after each offer. Please sign, date, and return this notification by May 1.

To ensure you are receiving the best financial aid package, read the fine print on your notification and on any additional forms included with the notification! Identify the funds that are gifts and the funds you’ll be expected to repay.

The information provided is tentative. We encourage you to contact our staff for assistance.

We are pleased to assist you in financing your education. All financial aid offered is considered to be a supplement to the resources of your family, yourself, and aid available options.
