How to Apply for VSAC-Assisted Scholarships

You must be a Vermont resident and a United States citizen (or an eligible non-citizen) to apply for VSAC-assisted scholarships (unless a particular scholarship specifies otherwise). Applying for the VSAC-assisted scholarships on pages 5–30 is easy if you follow the steps outlined below:

1. Review the booklet and identify the scholarships you’re eligible to apply for.

2. Scholarships listed on pages 5–30 require the Unified Scholarship Application (USA). Fill out the USA through your MyVSAC account at www.vsac.org. If you don’t have an account, click the MyVSAC button in the upper right of the home page at www.vsac.org. On the MyVSAC page, click “Register Now” for MyVSAC.

3. Submit your required documents online through your MyVSAC account.

What you need to know about required documents

Each individual scholarship description on pages 5–30 indicates which documents must be submitted in order for your application for that scholarship to be considered complete. Not all documents described below are required for every scholarship.

- Submit only one copy of each document, even if more than one scholarship requires it.
- All documents must be submitted online or postmarked on or before the February 15, 2019, deadline.
- Each document must be labeled with the document name, your name, and your Social Security number.
- Recommendation letters and a portfolio are the exceptions and may be labeled with the document name, your name, and your date of birth.

How to submit your required documents

Once you’ve submitted your Unified Scholarship Application (USA), upload required documents through your MyVSAC account. To upload your required documents:

1. Log into your MyVSAC account (use the same username you used when you submitted your USA).

2. Click on “Apply for Scholarships.”

3. Click on “Upload Scholarship Documents” and follow the directions.

If you’re unable to upload your required documents online, you can send them by mail to:

VSAC Scholarships Program
PO Box 2000
Winooski, VT 05404

Please note: Some high schools are able to upload documents to VSAC on behalf of their students. Please check with your high school to determine whether it has signed up to use this service.

If you've attended a college or training school after high school graduation, submit an official transcript from the most recent college, university, or training school you attended.

If you've never attended a college or training school after high school graduation, submit an official transcript from the most recent high school you attended.

If you received a GED, submit an official report of your GED test results instead of an official transcript from a high school.

If you were home-schooled, submit an official home-school transcript.

If you attended an Alternative Pathways High School through Act 77, submit a proficiency-based transcript.

| Other required documents                  | If a scholarship requires additional documents, the document(s) will be listed in the description. Other required documents should be submitted on a separate sheet of paper labeled with the document name, your name, and Social Security number. |
Required Documents: Recommendation Letters

We recommend you copy this page and share with the person(s) you've selected to write your recommendation letter(s). Remember, this is their opportunity to speak directly to the scholarship committee. Their letter should address the areas described in the letter content section below.

- Refer to each scholarship description on pages 5–30 to determine which of the recommendation letters you're required to submit.
- Each recommendation letter must be written by the individual designated by the applicant, be on official (school, business, college, organization, etc.) letterhead, and/or be physically signed by the individual who wrote the letter. Letters not signed or not on official letterhead cannot be authenticated. This may influence committee selection of a recipient.

Send properly labeled recommendation letter(s) to VSAC

Beware of Scams

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) warns students to be careful in using scholarship search companies. While some firms are legitimate, others aren’t. A tip-off could be if the firm “guarantees” or “promises” scholarships or grants. No reputable firm can legitimately make such a claim.

Beware of these telltale statements:

“This scholarship is guaranteed or your money back.”
“You can’t get this information anywhere else.”
“We’ll need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship.”
“We’ll do all the work for you!”
“There’s a fee to apply for this scholarship.”
“You’ve been selected by a national foundation to receive a scholarship.”
“You’re a finalist ...” (in a contest you never entered)

The Vermont Student Assistance Corporation (VSAC) publishes this booklet to provide you with information about specific scholarships available to Vermont residents. Most of the scholarships listed are sponsored by private groups, including Vermont businesses, charitable or service organizations, veterans groups, and others.

The majority of financial aid available to Vermont students is provided by your college, university, or training school, the federal government, and VSAC. Scholarships are considered supplements to other aid, such as grants and loans.

Scholarships, like grants, are forms of “gift aid,” meaning there is no obligation (under most circumstances) to repay the funds. While grants are generally awarded according to financial need, scholarships are typically based on factors unique to each scholarship. These may include residency, degree program or major, academic achievement, extracurricular activities, and—in some cases—financial need.

Remember that when you apply for scholarships, you’ll be competing against other students who apply. Keep in mind, though, that if a scholarship is based on academic achievement, you may not have to be the best student in your class; you simply need to be the best student applying for that scholarship. Similarly, if a scholarship is based on financial need, your need will be compared only to the need of other applicants within that scholarship pool.
