A program for aspiring psychiatric mental health nurse practitioners

An interest-free forgivable loan that pays up to 100% of your tuition. ←

The Vermont Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioners Forgivable Loan Program covers up to full tuition for qualified recipients enrolled in a program that leads to a PMHNP-BC certification.

- The program is open to Vermont residents and non-resident students.
- Must be a current nurse practitioner or registered nurse enrolled at least half-time in graduate level nursing courses that prepare them to take the American Nursing Credentialing Center competency exam for the PMHNP-BC certification.
- Must attend an accredited school anywhere in the US with preference given to Vermont institutions.
- Recipients are eligible for up to $17,650 (including tuition, fees, room, board, books and supplies).

Awards are in the form of an interest-free loan that is forgiven when the recipient signs a promissory note and has completed the following work obligations:

- Agree to work full-time as a psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner in Vermont for a minimum of one year following licensure for each year of funding received.

Deadlines to apply: Applications are accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis.

Funding is awarded to qualifying applicants on a first-come, first-served basis until all funds have been depleted.
